NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES (HIPAA)

EFFECTIVE DATE: 11.20.2025

REVISED DATE: 06.09.2026

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW HEALTH INFORMATION MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

I. MY PLEDGE REGARDING HEALTH INFORMATION

I understand that health information about you and your care is personal, and I am committed to protecting it. I create a record of the services you receive in order to provide quality care and comply with legal requirements. This notice applies to all records of your care created by LILAC DRIVE COUNSELING, PLLC. It explains how I may use and disclose your health information, your rights, and my legal duties.

I am required by law to:

- Ensure your protected health information (PHI) is kept private.
- Provide you with this Notice of Privacy Practices.
- Follow the terms of the notice currently in effect.

I may revise this notice at any time. Revised versions will be available upon request.

II. HOW I MAY USE AND DISCLOSE HEALTH INFORMATION

The following describe different ways your PHI may be used or disclosed. Not every use is listed, but all permitted uses fall within these categories.

Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations:

Your PHI may be used or disclosed for treatment purposes, billing, and health care operations without written authorization. Examples include consultation with other providers, billing insurance, or coordination of care. Disclosures for treatment purposes are not subject to the minimum necessary rule.

Lawsuits and Disputes:

I may disclose PHI in response to a valid court order, subpoena, or other lawful request.

III. USES AND DISCLOSURES REQUIRING YOUR AUTHORIZATION

1. Psychotherapy Notes. I keep “psychotherapy notes” as that term is defined in 45 CFR § 164.501, and any use or disclosure of such notes requires your Authorization unless the use or disclosure is: a. For my use in treating you. b. For my use in training or supervising mental health practitioners to help them improve their skills in group, joint, family, or individual counseling or therapy. c. For my use in defending myself in legal proceedings instituted by you. d. For use by the Secretary of Health and Human Services to investigate my compliance with HIPAA. e. Required by law and the use or disclosure is limited to the requirements of such law. f. Required by law for certain health oversight activities pertaining to the originator of the psychotherapy notes. g. Required by a coroner who is performing duties authorized by law. h. Required to help avert a serious threat to the health and safety of others.
2. Marketing Purposes. I will not use or disclose your PHI for marketing purposes.
3. Sale of PHI. I will not sell your PHI in the regular course of my business.

IV. USES AND DISCLOSURES NOT REQUIRING YOUR AUTHORIZATION

Subject to certain limitations in the law, I can use and disclose your PHI without your authorization for the following reasons:

1. When disclosure is required by state or federal law, and the use or disclosure complies with and is limited to the relevant requirements of such law.
2. For public health activities, including reporting suspected child, elder, or dependent adult abuse, or preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone’s health or safety.
3. For health oversight activities, including audits and investigations.
4. For judicial and administrative proceedings, including responding to a court or administrative order, although my preference is to obtain an authorization from you before doing so.
5. For law enforcement purposes, including reporting crimes occurring on my premises.
6. To coroners or medical examiners, when such individuals are performing duties authorized by law.

7. For research purposes, including studying and comparing the mental health of patients who received one form of therapy versus those who received another form of therapy for the same condition.
8. Specialized government functions, including, ensuring the proper execution of military missions; protecting the President of the United States; conducting intelligence or counter-intelligence operations; or, helping to ensure the safety of those working within or housed in correctional institutions.
9. For workers' compensation purposes. Although my preference is to obtain an authorization from you, I may provide your PHI in order to comply with workers' compensation laws.
10. Appointment reminders and health related benefits or services. I may use and disclose your PHI to contact you to remind you that you have an appointment with me. I may also use and disclose your PHI to tell you about treatment alternatives, or other health care services or benefits that I offer.

V. USES AND DISCLOSURES WITH OPPORTUNITY TO OBJECT

I may disclose PHI to family members or others involved in your care unless you object. In emergencies, I may use professional judgment to determine what is in your best interest.

VI. YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR PHI

1. The Right to Request Limits on Uses and Disclosures of Your PHI. You have the right to ask me not to use or disclose certain PHI for treatment, payment, or health care operations purposes. I am not required to agree to your request, and I may say "no" if I believe it would affect your health care.
2. The Right to Request Restrictions for Out-of-Pocket Expenses Paid for In Full. You have the right to request restrictions on disclosures of your PHI to health plans for payment or health care operations purposes if the PHI pertains solely to a health care item or a health care service that you have paid for out-of-pocket in full.
3. The Right to Choose How I Send PHI to You. You have the right to ask me to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address, and I will agree to all reasonable requests.
4. The Right to See and Get Copies of Your PHI. Other than "psychotherapy notes," you have the right to get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other information that I have about you. I will provide you with a copy of your record, or a summary of it, if you agree to receive a summary, within 30 days of receiving your written request, and I may charge a reasonable, cost based fee for doing so.
5. The Right to Get a List of the Disclosures I Have Made. You have the right to request a list of instances in which I have disclosed your PHI for purposes other than treatment, payment, or health care operations, or for which you provided me with an authorization. I will respond to your request for an accounting of disclosures within 60 days of receiving your request. The list I will give you will include disclosures made in the last six years unless you request a shorter time. I will provide the list to you at no charge, but if you make more than one request in the same year, I will charge you a reasonable cost based fee for each additional request.

6. The Right to Correct or Update Your PHI. If you believe that there is a mistake in your PHI, or that a piece of important information is missing from your PHI, you have the right to request that I correct the existing information or add the missing information. I may say “no” to your request, but I will tell you why in writing within 60 days of receiving your request.
7. The Right to Get a Paper or Electronic Copy of this Notice. You may receive this notice electronically or in paper form at any time.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RECEIPT

Under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), you have certain rights regarding the use and disclosure of your protected health information. By checking the box below, you are acknowledging that you have received a copy of HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices.
